A partnership between Communication Matters and Therapy in Action

Our unique class for children under the age of 3 years offers fun, friendship, and support! Enjoy the company of other parents, while having the opportunity to learn from child development experts! All questions welcome, and all children embraced! Perhaps your child doesn't 'sit still for circle time', "sing the songs", or hasn't reached expected milestones.

That's not a problem! Our mission is to help your child thrive and to provide ideas and practical parenting assistance to you! We offer a variety of activities and developmentally appropriate ways to play and learn, exposing you and your child to new ways to have fun! Join us!
